Departmental Highlights

1. The Dept. of Computer Science Engineering (CSE)

About the Department: Today we find that information technology has become overwhelmingly pervasive, while its parent, computing science, has become correspondingly hard to find. While many Computer Science educational institutions have shifted focus from core Computer Science and become specialty providers for the IT industry while our department has remained true to the vision on which it was founded.

There are several ways to present the canonical core of computer science. Over the years we have developed a distinct style and method that bridges the theory – practice divide while remaining grounded in the core.

Our Department has produced hundreds of professionals and has established a name for itself in the country and abroad. They have consistently excelled in the highly competitive industrial environment, Best Employer in top-ranking companies. I attribute this success to the winning combination of a dedicated and experienced faculty that works hard at imparting quality education, a well-planned syllabus and last but not least, our sincere students.

We believe that this approach to teaching-learning, coupled with practical experience gained during Industrial Training in reputed organizations, equips our students to handle the challenges posed by the software industry. I am confident that our students will prove themselves worthy for any organization or institute.

Emphasis of Practical Learning

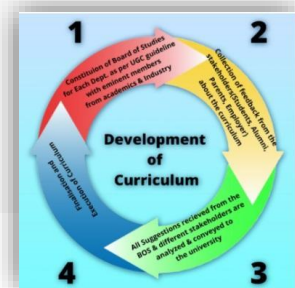

The purpose of practical classes are to guide and familiarize students with working life situations that help them to apply acquired practical knowledge and skills at the workplace. Special assessments and reflection sessions are arranged by the NiT during the practical session in order to assess the students' learning.

Live Projects

Our teaching methodologies put a lot of stress on live projects which provides an opportunity to students to acquire and represent the capabilities of up to date thoughts and knowledge as per requirement of real word.

Curriculum Development

The Curriculum of all the disciplines are revised periodically by taking the feedback from the Academicians, industry personnel and distinguished alumni members.

A Grievance is any discontent or dissatisfaction, whether expressed or not, whether valid or not, arising out of anything connected with the Institute that a student thinks, believes, or even feels, is unfair, unjust or inequitable. The objective of the mechanism is to Link with a well-defined Disciplinary System to make it acceptable to all.

Code of Ethics for Open Book Examination System

1. Introduction

Before you start your exam answers at the beginning of your open-book exam, you will be asked to agree to the following pledge:

“I acknowledge the Code of Ethics for Open Book Examination System of Narula Institute of Technology and I hereby confirm that I shall submit answers which is entirely my own and (i) I shall not use the services of any agency or person(s) providing specimen, model or ghost written work in the preparation of the work I submit for this open book examination; (ii) I shall not give assistance in accessing this paper or in providing specimen, model or ghost written work to other candidates submitting for this open-book examination.”

Please take the time now, before your first exam, to read and understand the ethics code, as well as the following key policies and regulations which interact with the ethics code:

Narula Institute of Technology views cheating, acting dishonestly and/or collusion in an examination as serious disciplinary offences that may result in disciplinary actions, with the most severe penalty being expulsion from the Institute without a qualification. In the context of open-book examinations:

- The Institute considers that accessing the question paper via any other means than directly, via the designated platform, and/or sharing the question paper with other students, falls within its definition of cheating and of acting dishonestly.
- The Institute reserves the right to use manual checking as well as software applications, to screen submitted work for matches either to electronic sources or to other submitted work.

2. Standards of Behaviour of Students

Students are expected to act as responsible members of the Institute’s community. In the context of open book examination, this means students are:

(a) Permitted to:

1. Refer to their own course and revision notes; and
2. Access offline or online resources, for example textbooks or online journals.

(b) Expected to:

1. Submit work which has not been submitted, either partially or in full, either for their current Curriculum, or for another Curriculum of this University (except where the Special Regulations for the subject permit this), or for a qualification at any other institution.

2. Indicate clearly the presence of all material they have quoted from other sources, including any diagrams, charts, tables or graphs. Students are not expected to reference, however if you provide a direct quote, or copy a diagram or chart, you are expected to make some mention of the source material as you would in a typical invigilated exam.

3. Paraphrase adequately all material in their own words

(c) Required to confirm as part of each submission:

1. That the work they are submitting for the open-book examination is entirely their own work, except where otherwise indicated.

2. That they have not copied from the work of any other candidate, nor consulted or colluded with any other candidate during the examination.

3. Alternative Exam Arrangements

Additional time will be provided for students who have approved alternative exam arrangements such as extra writing and/or rest time. You will know already if you have this approval, which is provided on disability/health grounds. You'll be able to submit your exam response later than the 'standard' stated duration.

Candidates who usually have standard extra time of up to 15 minutes per hour for writing and/or rest time combined, will be awarded an additional hour for each open-book exam duration. Please ensure that you have checked your approved exam duration before you open the exam paper.

4. Time Limit for Examination

Do not wait until the very end of your exam time to start submitting your response as you may go over your allocated time and incur a penalty as detailed further in this guide. You get exactly 1/2/3/4 hours for writing the exam. For scanning and upload, you get a certain technical time based on the duration of the exam. The exact amount of technical time will vary based on the following rule: Exam length Technical time allowance up to and including 75 minutes 15 minutes technical time 76 minutes to 179 minutes 30 minutes technical time 180 minutes or more 60 minutes technical time

5. Penalty for Late Exam Response

You must not leave it until the last minute to upload your exam response in the designated link. You have additional time added to your exam duration to enable you to download your exam paper at the start and upload your exam response at the end without encroaching on your writing time.

Penalties as decided by the Board of Examination will be applied if you submit your exam response later than the times detailed above (beyond the relevant grace period) and including later than specified in agreed alternative arrangements.

You should upload your exam response within the time allowed. If you access the exam paper later than the published start time (and you do not have an agreed alternative start time) you will still need to finish and submit your exam response within the published timeframe or be considered to have submitted late.

If you access the paper on time but upload your exam response after the published time frame (and you do not have an agreed alternative arrangement in place), you will also be considered to have submitted late.

If you believe you have a good reason for submitting late including difficulties related to downloading your exam paper or uploading your response, you should submit a mitigating circumstances notice to examiners to explain this. The Board of Examination of the Institute will use the mitigating circumstances notice to consider whether to waive penalties.

6. Checklist to upload Exam Response

Before submitting your examination response document, you must first make sure your work meets each of the requirements in the list below:

1. You may only submit ONE document. Any scanned images, diagrams or handwriting must be included in the same document. Please make absolutely sure you upload the correct document and that all pages are included as you expect them to be as you will not be able to change this once it has been submitted.
2. Your exam response must be submitted within the duration (hours and minutes) stated in the individual timetable email sent to you. If you have approved alternative examination arrangements, please refer to the duration already communicated to you.
3. Your exam response should be identified ONLY by your Roll number as per your admit card.
4. Your exam response should not contain any other pieces of information that could identify you to the marker of your paper.
5. Save your exam response as a PDF document. If you're unable to submit as a PDF, you may submit in the .jpg format, but note that this may lead to formatting issues.

6. The file name should follow the format: RollNumber_PaperCode.pdf, e.g. 430318010016_EE505A.pdf. After you submit your exam response, you will receive an email confirmation. You should save this email for reference.

7. Helpdesk:

Helpdesk numbers and email address shall be mailed to you at least 24 hours in advance. Before contacting the helpdesk, you must always consult your mentor who will be notified on current technical issues and mitigation strategy. Also, you must register your problem with the helpdesk by sending an email.

The Helpdesk team will aim to help you resolve your query or issue straightaway, but it may be necessary to forward your query or issue to another team. Your query or issue will be logged and shared with those who need to know that you have had an issue which may have affected your open-book exam(s).

On the day of your exam, if you are unable to download or open your question paper at this point, or you are having technical problems uploading your exam response, please contact the helpdesk immediately.

You must state explicitly that you are in the middle of an exam – please include your Roll number and exam paper code so the team can help you quickly.

Please contact the helpdesk team immediately and before the end of your exam if you realise that you have submitted a document which is not your exam response. The Helpdesk staff will be able to help you submit the correct document. Remember that if you submit this after the end of your exam duration, you may incur a late penalty.

It will not be possible to accept your correct document if you simply wish to submit an edited version of your originally submitted exam response document. It will not be possible to query the content of the question paper during the exam. If you think that there is an error or mistake in your exam paper then you should state what you consider the error or mistake to be at the start of your answer for that question and if necessary, you should state your understanding of the question. You should then try to complete the paper as best you can.
