

Human Resource Next Gen Employability Conclave 2014

Bengal Chamber of Commerce and industries (BCC&i), Kolkata organized a Human Resource conclave in association with JIS Group on the theme 'HR Next Gen Employability Conclave 2014' held at Novotel on December 20, 2014. More than 80 HR professionals from different corporates attended this conclave. First half of the whole day session held at Novotel and 2nd half held at Narula Institute of Technology wherein six eminent personalities from reputed corporates addressed the students of various institutions under the aegis of JIS Group Educational Initiatives on the theme "Corporate Pulse" - specifically designed to interact with the students.

The notable personalities are-

1. Rajesh Jain - Head (Corporate HR, Srei Infrastructure Finance Limited)
2. Rahul Bose - Learning and Development Leader, IBM India Limited
3. P K Sahu - Senior General Manager - HR & IR, Tata Steel Processing And Distribution Limited
4. Debmalya Banerjee- Eastern Regional Director, Assocham.

“Knowledge is the foundation for our country’s development, but when combined with the proper utilization of skill, can propel the work force forward”, said by Mr. Rajesh Jain in the program. While students fret about not landing jobs of their choice and whether they will get the right salary package, the program also focused on how HR professionals go to any lengths to pick the right candidate for the job. Skill quotient is the order of the day, and Mr. P K Sahu told students to “constantly be able to learn new things, every day of your lives, and to reinvent and re-learn”.

Mr. Mridul Pathak, Director Diaspora, GOPIO(Global organization for people of Indian origin) and Co -chairman, Indo American global chamber of commerce moderated the session. There was an overwhelming turnout in the seminar hall and everyone actively participated in the program.

