

Rashtriya Ekta Diwas

It is an endeavor to promote the message of Unity, Safety and Security by the students of Narula Institute of Technology on 31st October 2014. The programme was designed keeping in mind Sardar Patel's relentless contributions in this field and to commemorate his Birth Anniversary. The event began with students and staff taking a pledge inside the college campus as a mark of tribute to the "Rashtriya Ekta Diwas"

(National Unity Day). The

pledge taking ceremony was followed by a small cultural program cultivating the essence of integrity and reliability in our nation where students shown their magnificent performances in speech, music and dance. The students and staff highlighted Sardar Patel's dedicated service to our motherland. Later in the day one-hundred and ten students and fifteen staff members of the college took part in a colourful rally with great zeal and enthusiasm from the Institute premises to Indian Statistical Institute, Baranagar, fostering the spirit of Unity, Safety and Security. A few precious photos of Sardar Ballav

Bhai Patel was also displayed in Photo Gallery
