

The Fresher's welcome ceremony for students of Narula Institute of Technology (i-NiT-ialise), was held on 27th of February, 2014. The newcomers in the family were entertained by their seniors through various Fun events.

The Event was given a superb start by the College band Music Di Oxide. The band known for its offbeat numbers swayed the crowd off its feet. It was followed by awesome song performances by college students.

The main event of the fresher's welcome ceremony was the crowning of Mr. and Ms. Fresher's Welcome. Personal Interviews of the interested candidates were taken by the seniors. After a rigorous selection procedure spread over a time span of two weeks, six boys and six girl finalists were chosen on the basis of several parameters. On the day of the finale the finalists went through an elimination round based on a General Knowledge Quiz. After the eliminations, the rest of the finalists were asked to perform on Stage. The Finalists gave a sizzling performance, leaving the audience overwhelmed. The Winners were decided by the audience itself by on spot voting. The winners were Mr. Zaid Ahsan and Ms. Emon Chakroborty

After the fantastic performance of the Finalists, it was the turn of Rhythm Slaves, the dance group of Narula Institute of Technology, who gave a fantabulous performance to entertain the crowd. The Dance group performed on various popular numbers like Tum hi ho, Baby Doll etc.

In the meantime each student was given delicious refreshment packets and also a memento to make this moment a memorable one.

The ice on the cake was the final performance by Disco Jockey. DJ Salva known for his unique style and exclusive numbers, and one of the leading Disco Jockey of the town, was invited to perform on the occasion. DJ played various numbers which entertained one and all. After the end of the performance the whole arena was full of "Once more" roar.
