Narula Institute of Technology
Cultural program for Holi "Hail Spring"

22-03-2016

The Festival of colours is celebrated with great enthusiasm and enjoyment. The Institute chooses the eco- friendly way by using organic colours and flowers to spread the festive fervour. The rangoli artwork, cultural programme and sweets added more colour to the festivity and promised to bring harmony and prosperity in our lives.

Mini Marathon, 2016

March 8th, 2016

On the occasion of women's day Mini Marathon was organized by Narula Institute of Technology, under JIS group Educational Initiatives. The bystanders and the residents at Kamarhati witnessed a brilliant show of harmony on March 8, 2016 when around five – hundred participants ran gleefully in the 3.5 km . The Marathon echoed the slogan 'Run with gaiety, Pledge for Parity'. This event aimed to spread the message of Gender uniformity among the people. Besides the participants from the host institute, the schools in the neighbourhood also joined the Marathon in order to express their solidarity. The gender split was 46% females and 64%males and the participants ranged in the age group between 12 to 65 years. The participants took an oath in favour of Gender uniformity before the commencement and then with the count of ten the race was flagged off by Mr.Soumen Bose, eminent cricket coach (Cricket Association of Bengal) from Kamarhati bus stand at 4pm. The runners were escorted by a furnished van where the cultural team of the college sang in chorus and imparted the message of parity and integrity. The entire route was well managed by the college volunteers and the traffic control. The event was graced by the former national footballer Mr Pratap Senapati, local councilor, Principals of neighboring schools and the dignitaries of JIS group.

The Marathon touched the lives of the local people and ended with a note of respect to womanhood.

Cultural program on Republic Day

January 26, 2016

This year republic day was celebrated enthusiastically by the Staff and Students of Narula Institute of Technology College. All the students assembled on the college ground at 9:00 am. After some time the principal and other distinguished persons arrived. The principal unfurled the national flag. This was followed by our National Anthem 'Jan Gan Man' sung by a team of students. Then the series of speeches started. The Principal addressed the gathering and motivated the students by making them aware of the importance of the day and also emphasized that one can become a good citizen only and only if one has good health as a healthy body and mind can think better and take wise decisions for themselves and the nation. Students delivered different patriotic performances.

Cultural activities on the National Youth Day to commemorate 153rd Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda

12 January 2016

Narula Institute of Technology will commemorate the 153rd Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekananda- the Maker of Modern India on 12 January 2016. Swami Vivekananda believed that a country's future depends on its people, and his teachings focused on human development. To pay tribute to this great personality we have taken the initiative to organize a cultural program from 3.30pm onwards in the Seminar Hall. Your spontaneous participation and cooperation will make the programme a grand success.
