International Mother Language Day 21st February, 2017

This is to inform all that KATHAKOLI a garland of events, organized by Art and Literary club of the institute gave an opportunity to observe the International Mother Language Day on 21st February in a different way. The spontaneous participation of students in Essay and Elocution competition again proved the variety of skills they have. Our chief guest was Mr. Anirban Bhattacharya, a Bengali film and stage actor whose gracious presence made our event glorified. Our college drama group S6 and Sparsh performed along with the invited theatre group Balarko. Mr Anirban enlightened the performers and the students with words of encouragement. The observation of this special day was not confined only within the four walls of our college as Nit-ians aimed to hold the hands of the economically weaker and orphan children who are unable to have education properly. The students and staff members conducted a 'walk for a cause', which is a step taken by our college to give them a ray of hope and put a smile on their face. The walk had the mission to make awareness among people to educate the children and go ahead together and make a better nation. The students carried appealing placards reflecting the mission of the Walk. Around 500 students walked gaily chanting songs which motivated the local people and added rhythm to make it more joyful. The walk ended with the distributed kits and sweets to the underprivileged children of the society.
