NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (NSS)

The National Service Scheme (NSS) was officially started in the year 1969, to establish a meaningful linkage between the campus and the community. The vision is to build the youth with the mind and spirit to serve the society and work for the uplift of our country as a movement.

• Social services are a range of public services provided by any national or regional government organization for its residents, including such things as health care, public housing, social care and social security.

• According to Web definition, it is an organized activity to improve the condition of disadvantaged people in society.

• According to Merriam Webster, „Social service is an activity designated to promote social well-being specifically organized Philanthropic assistance to disadvantaged".

After independence the University Grants Commission, headed by S. Radhakrishnan, recommended the introduction of voluntary national service in academic institutions. This idea was again considered by the Central Advisory Board of Education (CABE) at its meeting in January,1950. Mahatma Gandhi, the Father of the Nation, had recognised that the country could not progress in a desired direction until the student youth were motivated to work for the upliftment of the villages/community. For Gandhiji, the villages, where majority of the population living, represent the country. Therefore, for the national reconstruction and national resurgence it was deemed fit that the students and teachers should be properly sensitised and utilised for strengthening the Indian society as a whole with particular emphasis on rural community. Therefore, student youth, teachers and the community are considered as the three basic components of the National Service Scheme. After examining the idea and the experiences of other countries in this field, the board recommended that students and teachers should devote time to voluntary manual work. In 1958 Jawaharlal Nehru, in a letter to the chief ministers, considered the idea of social service as a prerequisite for graduation. It was directed the Ministry of Education to formulate a suitable scheme for the introduction of national service into academic institutions. The Education Commission (headed by D.S. Kothari from 1964–1966) recommended that students at every stage of education should be associated with some form of social service. In a government statement of national policy on education, it was stated that work experience and national service should be an integral part of education. The National Service Scheme has been functioning with the motto "NOT ME BUT YOU" in view of making the youth inspired in service of the people and hence NSS Aims Education through Community Service through Education.

Social services are a range of public services provided by any national or regional government organization for its residents, including such things as health care, public housing, social care and social security. According to Web definition, it is an organized activity to improve the condition of disadvantaged people in society. We stay true to our mission by realigning our wide-ranging roles with five new strategic thrusts to better meet tomorrow's social needs. Expanding on our responsibilities as a membership body, we strive to be the voice of the sector and an advocate for underserved needs. We enhance social services, pioneer innovative program; improve service delivery and efficacy, and increase corporate and community engagement to match capabilities and needs. Our multidirectional efforts to raise capabilities, mobilize resources and provide funding to scale up the sector's competencies have a key goal in mind – assisting our members to create lasting positive impact. Therefore, for the national reconstruction and national resurgence it was deemed fit that the students and teachers should be properly sensitized and utilized for strengthening the Indian society as a whole with particular emphasis on rural community. Therefore, student youth, teachers and the community are considered as the three basic components of the National Service Scheme.

Why Technical Persons Intended to do Social Service?

- In any developmental work people are the most important stakeholders. It is so because of the fact that all developments need to help some targeted population, be it in the realm of health, education, water supply, drainage/sewerage or any other engineering facts.
- Engineers per say one of the major couriers right from the post-independence era.
- Growing influence of globalization and participation of all the development stakeholders has been more pronounced.
- In any kind of developmental process, careful and specific planning to help the stakeholders both from the angle of participation and implementation.
- Today with the rapid advancement of ICT, this need has become manifold. The actual implementers need to know both the environment and population in a holistic manner.
- In today's world, this is most important because the executors must learn toknow and analyze the actual ground reality from a better return to the society.

Typical NSS projects which are conducted within college Campus are as follows:

1. Tree plantation
2. Plastics eradication from college campus
